

I support RM-10783. The Morse Code requirement should be eliminated from Amateur radio and all licsensed operators should have access to the HF bands. This would serve the interest of amateur radio, national security, and all amateur organizations, including the ARRL. Sharon Glass, KC0DWR